Haskayne School of Business — Recommended Options for the Bachelor Of Commerce Program

BComm Concentration Area	Non-Commerce Option Area Recommended
ACCT (Accounting) FNCE (Finance) PFPL(Personal Financial Planning)	DATA (Data Science) ECON (Economics)	MATH (Mathematics)
BANA (Business Analytics) BTMA (Business Technology Management) OPMA (Operations Management)	CPSC (Computer Science) DATA (Data Science)	MATH Mathematics) STAT (Statistics)
ENTI (Entrepreneurship & Innovation)	CPSC (Computer Science)	DATA (Data Science)
IBST (International Business Strategy)	Any Language Course Any International Culture (EAST, LAST, SAST)	INTR (International Relations) POLI (Political Science)
MKTG (Marketing)	COMS (Communication and Media Studies) DATA (Data Science) INNO (Innovation)	PHIL (Philosophy) PSYC (Psychology) SOCI (Sociology) STAT (Statistics)
OBHR (Organizational Behaviour & Human Resources)	PHIL (Philosophy) PSYC (Psychology)	SOCI (Sociology)
REAL (Real Estate Studies)	ARCH (Architectural Studies) GEOG (Geography) or POLI (Political Science) courses with a focus on cities, urban development, social and/or economic geography.	SOCI (Sociology) SUST (Sustainability Studies) UBST (Urban Studies)
RMIN (Risk Management & Insurance) RMIF (Risk Management Insurance & Finance)	ACSC (Actuarial Science)
SCMA (Supply Chain Management)	GEOG (Geography)

Junior level Non-Commerce Options Recommended for All BComm Students
ARCH 201: Architecture and Future of Cities	GSXS 201: Talking Gender and Sexuality
ANTH 203: Introduction to Social and Cultural Anthropology	HTST 200: Events and Ideas That Changed the World
ARHI 201: Introduction to Art History I	HTST 213: Canada Since 1867
ARHI 203: Introduction to Art History II	INDG 201: Introduction to Indigenous Studies
ART 235: Intro to Photography and Digital Imaging	LWSO 201: Introduction to Legal Studies
CNST 201: Introduction to Canadian Studies	LWSO 203: Introduction to Legal Knowledge
CMCL 201: Culture Foundations	PHIL 264: How Do We Know?
COMS 201: Introduction to Communication and Media Studies	PHIL 279: Logic I
COMS 203: New Media	PLAN 201: Planning and the Future of Cities
CPSC 203: Introduction to Problem Solving using Application Software	PLUR 201: Introduction to Pluralism

CPSC 217: Introduction to Computer Science for Multidisciplinary Studies I	POLI 201: Introduction to Government and Politics
CPSC 219: Introduction to Computer Science for Multidisciplinary Studies II	POLI 283: Issues and Trends in World Politics
DATA 201: Thinking with Data	PSYC 200: Principles of Psychology I
DATA 211: Programming with Data	PSYC 201: Principles of Psychology II
DEST 201: Introduction to Global Development Studies	PSYC 203: Psychology for Everyday Life
DRAM 203: Creativity	SOCI 201: Introductory Sociology
DRAM 205: Story	SUST 201: Exploring Sustainability
GEOG 204: Global Environmental Change	SOWK 201: Introduction to Social Work
GEOG 254: Society and Environment	UNIV 201/203: Global Challenges Inquiry I & II
GEOG 280: Thinking Spatially in a Digital World	UNIV 205: Effective Learning Strategies

Senior level Non-Commerce Options Without Prerequisites
ALMC 360: Topics in Muslim Literatures	GSXS 305: Topics in Gender and Sexuality
ANTH 303: Business in Cultural Context	Many 300-level HTST (History) Courses are without prerequisites
CHIN 317: Topics in Chinese Civilization	Many 300-level INDG (Indigenous Studies) Courses are without prerequisites
CNST 333: A Comparison of Canadian and American Cultures	INDL 301 & 303: Indigenous Language I & II
CNST 361: Gender, Race and Ethnicity in Canada	JPNS 317: Topics in Japanese Civilization
COMS 401: Special Topics in Communication and Media Studies	Many 300-level PHIL (Philosophy) Courses are without prerequisites
GEOG 303: Introduction to Climate Change	Many 300-level POLI (Political Science) Courses are without prerequisites
GSXS 303: Topics in Feminism	PHYS 371: Introduction to Energy

Important Notes
-The BComm degree program can accommodate a maximum of 12 units in junior level (200-level) non-commerce courses.   -DATA 201 and UNIV 201 are junior non-commerce options recommended for BComm students interested in pursuing the BComm Honours degree program.   -Many non-commerce course topics can be completed as part of a minor program. Please consult with a program specialist in Haskayne Undergraduate Student Services if you would like to discuss completing a minor to your BComm degree program.   -Course descriptions and prerequisite information for all undergraduate courses offered by UofC can be found here: https://calendar.ucalgary.ca/courses?page=1&cq=.