Rajiv Banker Memorial Keynote Lecture

Srikant Datar
Harvard Business School

Srikant M. Datar became the eleventh dean of Harvard Business School on 1 January 2021. During his tenure as a faculty member, he served as Senior Associate Dean for University Affairs (including Faculty Chair of the Harvard Innovation Lab), for Research, for Executive Education, for Faculty Development, and for Faculty Recruiting.

A distinguished graduate of the University of Bombay, Datar received gold medals upon graduation from the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, and the Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India. A Chartered Accountant, he holds two master's degrees and a Ph.D. from Stanford University.

Datar’s research and course development has been in the areas of cost management and management control, strategy implementation, governance, and, more recently, management education, design thinking and innovative problem solving, and machine learning and artificial intelligence. He has published his work on activity-based management, quality, productivity, time-based competition, new product development, bottleneck management, incentives, and performance evaluation in journals such as The Accounting Review, Journal of Accounting and Economics, Journal of Accounting Research, Contemporary Accounting Research, and Management Science. He co-authors the leading cost accounting textbook, Cost Accounting: A Managerial Emphasis (Prentice-Hall) and Rethinking the MBA: Business Education at a Crossroads (Harvard Business Press). He has authored over 30 cases on topics ranging from Data Science at Target to Nippon Steel.

Datar has taught MBA and executive education classes in design thinking, innovation, big data, and strategy implementation. Before joining the HBS faculty, he held appointments at both Carnegie Mellon University and Stanford University, where he received the George Leland Bach Award for Excellence in the Classroom and the Distinguished Teaching Award, respectively.

Datar serves on the Board of Directors of ICF International, Stryker Corporation, and T-Mobile US and has worked with many corporations on consulting and field-based projects. He was honoured by the National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD) as the Public Company Director for 2020. He is a member of the American Accounting Association and the Institute of Management Accountants. He has served on the editorial board of several journals and presented his research to academic and executive audiences in North America, South America, Asia, Africa, and Europe.
Keynote Speaker

Keeta Gladue
University of Calgary

Cree + Métis, Keeta Gladue serves as the Manager of the Indigenous Research Support Team in Research Services. Her role is to support ethical, community-engaged research with Indigenous Peoples and communities at the University of Calgary. She also collaborates with Senior Leadership to ensure research at UCalgary is in alignment with the University of Calgary’s Indigenous strategy, ii’ taa’poh’to’p (Blackfoot for “place to rejuvenate and re-energize during a journey”), and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission’s Calls to Action.

As an Indigenous researcher, her fields of study are post-secondary student mental health and wellness, Truth and Reconciliation in higher education, and Indigenizing academic integrity and Artificial Intelligence. A two-time TEDx speaker, Keeta seeks to spark change and inspire momentum toward a shared future of flourishing and excellence in education.

Accountants as Leaders Panelists

Gord Graham
EY’s Assurance

Gord has spent 39 years working with EY’s Assurance practice, including 28 as a client serving partner. Gord has been EY’s Assurance leader for Alberta and Western Canada and the overall lead client service partner for EY Canada. Gord has also been a member of EY North America’s Partner Advisory Forum and the Canadian Partnership Board. He is a former member of the Canadian Accounting Standards Board.

Gord oversaw the formation for EY’s Climate Change and Sustainability practice in Western Canada and has been provided both financial statement audit and ESG assurance services to many of Canada’s largest public companies.

Gord has been actively involved in discussions with investment managers, senior corporate management and board members on the development and expected direction of sustainability reporting under the various global frameworks and on its relevance and reliability for investor decision making.
Rachel Miller
CPA Alberta

Rachel Miller FCPA, FCA, is the CEO of CPA Alberta, which regulates and supports Alberta’s more than 30,000 CPAs. The organization protects the public interest by regulating the competence and ethical standards of Alberta CPAs and promoting the value of the CPA designation.

Rachel has a long history of national leadership in the profession. She played a critical role in the creation of the CPA profession and has led CPA Alberta since its inception in 2015. She chairs the profession’s Council of Chief Executives and serves as Executive Director of both the CPA Education Foundation and the CPA Assist program. She was recognized with Fellowship in the CPA profession in 2014.

Rachel holds a Bachelor of Commerce with Honours degree from McMaster University. Prior to working with CPA Alberta and its predecessor organizations, Rachel worked in a variety of roles at local and national accounting firms. She shares her expertise in the community through volunteer activities for a number of faith-based, community, and recreational organizations.

Kevin Reinhart
Enerflex Ltd.

Kevin Reinhart is a retired CA who held various roles in public accounting and public company executive leadership. He graduated from Saint Mary's University with a Bachelor of Commerce degree in 1981 and earned his CA designation in 1984. He spent 13 years with the predecessor firms to KPMG, including a few years in the firm's National Department of Professional Practice, where he undertook research and advised offices across the country on accounting and securities matters.

After KPMG, he moved into the oil and gas industry with Nexen Inc. (formerly Canadian Occidental Petroleum), where he spent time in various finance functions, including corporate controller, treasurer, risk management, strategic planning and business development. He was also given the responsibility to enhance the company's oil and gas reserves determination process and its exploration process despite having no engineering or geological training. He eventually became CFO and ultimately the CEO. Shortly thereafter, Nexen was acquired by CNOOC Limited (a Chinese state-owned enterprise) for $19 billion. Following the acquisition, Mr. Reinhart stayed with CNOOC as President of their Western-world operations before retiring in 2014. He is currently the Chair of Enerflex Ltd., a publicly listed global natural gas equipment manufacturer located in Calgary.
Gordon Beal has over 35 years of leadership experience with an overarching focus on leading change and enhancing organizational learning and sustainability.

Gord is the Senior Vice President of Outreach at Chartered Professional Accountants (CPA) Alberta, and he oversees the operations and strategic direction of the CPA Education Foundation. Previously, Gord spent almost 18 years with CPA Canada, most recently as Vice President of Research, Guidance and Support. In this role, he led a team of professionals focused on standards guidance, exploratory applied research, and thought leadership. As a change leader, Gord led numerous organization-wide initiatives, including member support for the transition to International Standards in Financial Reporting and Assurance, the development of a comprehensive portfolio of resources on the role of accountants in Climate Change, and most recently in Foresight: Reimagining the Profession which explored and is helping to shape the future of the CPA profession.

In 2020, Gord was named to Canada’s Clean50, which recognizes outstanding contributions in the field of sustainability and clean capitalism in Canada.

Earlier in his career, Gord held a variety of senior financial and operational leadership roles in business and government. He has served on non-profit Boards, chaired the Finance and Audit Committee, and provided volunteer advisory support for a variety of local and national non-profit organizations.

With a passion for education and good governance, Gord was a founding board member for the University of Toronto Mississauga’s Professional Accounting Centre, and a board member for St. Mary’s University’s Centre for Excellence in Accounting and Reporting for Cooperatives and the University of Waterloo’s Centre for Information Security and Assurance. He has been a guest lecturer for various university programs and has presented in Canada and internationally on a range of emerging business and accounting topics.

In addition to an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Commerce from the University of Toronto, Gord holds a Bachelor of Education and Master of Education from Brock University. In 2021, Gord was granted a Fellow of Chartered Professional Accountants.

(July 6 - 9, 2025 at Fairmont Chateau Whistler)

Sponsors
Elnaz Basirianmahabadi

Elnaz has completed the second year of her PhD in accounting. With a background in finance and nearly a decade of experience as an investment manager and financial advisor, she is currently focused on intangible assets and their valuation, as well as their impact on reported earnings quality. She is also interested in the relationship between money and capital markets, aiming to bridge accounting and finance through improved accounting knowledge. Elnaz believes that enhancing accounting rules, regulations, and accepted principles can significantly benefit companies and investors.

Jonathan Tanone

Jonathan Tanone is a PhD student at Haskayne School of Business, University of Calgary. He studies business combinations, intangibles, and knowledge transfers in new economy firms. He is an accounting professional with diverse auditing and advisory experience.

Joon-Hong Kim

Joon-Hong Kim joined Temple University's PhD program in Accounting in 2022 as a Presidential Fellow. His primary research interests include financial accounting and government procurement. Before joining Temple Fox, he served as a government auditor in place of mandatory military service in South Korea. He holds a bachelor's degree from Yonsei University and a master's degree from KAIST.
Kaixuan Zhang

Kaixuan Zhang is a third-year accounting Ph.D. candidate at the University of Calgary. His current research interests are taxation and financial accounting. Specifically, he is working on tax effect due to the Tax Cuts and Job Act. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accounting from Iowa State University. Prior to joining the Ph.D. program, he was a Certified Public Accountant and worked at a public accounting firm in Des Moines, Iowa for two years.

Ruikai Ji

Ruikai Ji is a third-year Ph.D. student in accounting at the Fox School of Business, Temple University. He received a Master’s degree in accounting from UC San Diego and a Bachelor’s degree from Central University of Finance and Economics. He is interested in studying strategic disclosures and the use of value-relevant information.

Wenyu Zhou

Wenyu is a second-year PhD student specializing in taxation and financial accounting. She holds an MAcc and a B.A., both in Accounting. Wenyu’s research focuses on tax planning, cyberspace, measures of intangibles, and corporate financial performance. She has served as both an RA and TA during her past two years of study. In addition, she is a member of CAAA and EAA. As a recipient of the T&L grant this year, she also works in sustainability education and related data analysis.
Xinyi Peng

Xinyi Peng, a third-year accounting Ph.D. student at Haskayne School of Business, is doing research in the financial accounting field. Particularly, she is passionate about the intangible capital of the company and dedicates to identifying and quantifying it by doing textual analysis based on nature language model. Prior to her Ph.D. journey, she went to the University of Missouri and Clemson before her one-year industry practice as an accountant and tax practitioner.

Yujie Ma

Yujie Ma joined the PhD program in Accounting at the Fox School of Business in Fall 2022. Her primary research interests are in financial accounting, particularly in capital markets, banking, and disclosures. She has a strong interest in utilizing textual analysis and machine learning in her research. Yujie holds a Master of Accounting degree from the University of Michigan – Ann Arbor and a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting from Western Washington University. Before entering the PhD program, she worked as an internal auditor in the real estate industry.
